

HOW TO MAKE A POLLINATOR WATERING STATION

Pollinators need water to survive and build their nests. You can help them by providing a shallow watering station that allows them to drink without drowning. Use a shallow bowl and fill it with rocks or marbles. Add water and place it in the garden where pollinators can easily access it. Remember to keep it clean and filled.