36.0 A Director must resign immediately if, at any time during their term of office, they do not meet all of the qualifications.

37.0 Nothing in a contract or the Bylaws of a Society relieves a Director from:

- (a) the duty to conduct themselves in accordance with the Societies Act and the Regulations; or
- (b) liability for any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust.

38.0 A Director of a Society is not liable for the consequences of any decision or action if they:

- (a) carried out the duties reasonably and in good faith;
- (b) relied on the financial statements, an audit or written report from a qualified professional or a statement of fact from another Director; or
- (c) relied on any information a Court considers provides reasonable grounds for the actions.

39.0 The Society will purchase and maintain Director and Officer liability insurance.

40.0 The Society will indemnify, in writing, the Directors and the Senior Manager against all penalties, legal proceedings or investigative actions and pay expenses that may be actually and reasonably incurred.

41.0 Election of Directors

At the Annual General Meeting, the Members will elect a minimum of 7, and not more than 11 Directors.

42.0 A Director's act is not invalid merely because of a defect in how the Director was elected or appointed.

- 43.0 The Society's acts are not invalid merely because there are fewer Directors than the required number.
- 44.0 An elected Director's Term of Office is:
- (a) three consecutive years from the date of election;
 - (b) until the Director resigns, is deemed to have resigned in accordance with these Bylaws, dies; or
 - (c) removed from office in accordance with these Bylaws.
- 45.0 An elected Director may serve for no more than six consecutive years.
- 46.0 An elected Director may stand for re-election or appointment following a one-year break in service.
- 47.0 The Past-Board Chair may serve on the Board, ex-officio, as an appointed, voting Director following retirement from the Board, for a one-year term which may be extended by a Board resolution.
- 48.0 Senior Manager, Director of the Horticulture Centre of the Pacific College and the Head Gardener may be appointed to the Board by resolution, as non-voting Board Members, serving ex-officio.
- 49.0 A vacancy on the Board occurs when a Director resigns or is deemed to have resigned from the Board, ceases to be a Member of the Society, or dies.
- 50.0 The Board may fill a vacancy by appointing a qualified Member to fill the position until the end of the original Director's remaining term of office.
- 51.0 The Board may invite certain skilled persons to attend Board meetings.
- 52.0 The Officers of the HCP Society constitute an Executive Committee and are the:
- 53.0 Board Chair, Vice-Chair, Secretary, and Treasurer. The Board may appoint, by resolution, other Board Members and/ or a Senior Manager to the Executive Committee.
- 54.0 Election of Society Officers:
- (a) The Officers are elected from among the Directors at the first Board Meeting after the AGM and hold office for one year until the end of the next Annual General Meeting, and
 - (b) Society Officers may act in more than one capacity during their term of office as a Director.

55.0 An Officer position becomes vacant when:

- (a) the Officer's term of office expires or the Officer resigns from the office or is removed from office by the Board;
- (b) the Officer has resigned or is deemed to have resigned from the Board; or
- (c) ceases to be a member of the Society, or dies.

56.0 The Board may appoint another Member to fill the vacant office until the end of the term of the original Officer.

57.0 Removal or Resignation of a Director from the Board occurs when:

- (a) a Director is deemed to have resigned from the Board and may be replaced if he or she does not attend three consecutive meetings without a reason acceptable to the Board; or
- (b) a Director has missed, without reasonable explanation, 50% of the Board meetings in any consecutive twelve-month period.

58.0 A Director who intends to resign must do so in writing and must stipulate if the resignation is effective:

- (a) when the Society receives the resignation, or
- (b) on a specified date, or
- (c) on the occurrence of a specified event.

59.0 The Members can remove a Director from office by Special Resolution:

- (a) for conduct which, in the Members' sole discretion, is inimical to the interests of the Society; and
- (b) may, by Ordinary Resolution, elect another Member to serve as a Director for the balance of the term of the Director removed.

60.0 Appeal if a Director is removed from the Board:

- (a) that Director wishes to appeal their removal from the Board,
 - i. the Board must give the Director in question (the Appellant) not less than 14 calendar days' written notice of the time and place of the General Meeting at which the vote is to be taken, and
 - ii. the reason(s) for the proposed removal, and
 - iii. the opportunity to speak at the General Meeting and/or provide a written submission before the Members vote on the resolution.
- (b) the Appellant may present a written statement (not to exceed 200 words), and

- (b) performs such other duties as may be determined by the Board.

PART 9 – FINANCES

74.0 The Society will not:

- (a) distribute any gains, profits, investment capital or any other pecuniary benefit to the members and no part of the capital, assets or earnings will inure to the benefit of any of the members;
- (b) declare or distribute any dividend; or
- (c) distribute any of its property among the members during the existence of the Society or upon its winding up or dissolution.

75.0 Notwithstanding clause 74.0, any Member who is also serving as an employee of the Society shall be entitled to receive reasonable remuneration for such employment services as they may perform.

76.0 The Society's financial year is from January 1 to December 31 and:

- (a) Society funds will be deposited to the credit of the Society in a financial institution that is regulated by the Superintendent of Financial Institutions, carries on a banking business, and is selected by the Board;
- (b) Society funds surplus to operational needs shall be invested in a financial institution that is regulated by the Superintendent of Financial Institutions so as to return the highest possible interest rate to the Society;
- (c) Society funds may only be invested in guaranteed financial products or securities and such investments may be made without regard to the proportion of particular types of products or securities; and
- (d) the Board must ensure that each investment is one that a prudent investor may make.

- 77.0 Signing authority for approval of each payment or transfer from the Society's banking and investment accounts requires the signatures of any two of the following Officers: the Board Chair, the Secretary, the Treasurer, or one of the Officers, together with the Senior Manager.
- 78.0 The Board may, at its discretion, borrow money as well as issue bonds, debentures, notes or other evidences of debt obligations, at any time, to any person, and for fair consideration.
- 79.0 The Society may, by special resolution, restrict the borrowing powers of the Board of Directors, but a restriction imposed would expire at the next Annual General Meeting.
- 80.0 The Board, at each AGM, must:
- (a) present the audited financial statements for the twelve-month period representing the previous fiscal year's operations;
 - (b) include a note in the financial statements with regard to the total remuneration, including benefits, paid to any employee or contractor for services, where the amount was at least $75,000;
 - (c) include the Auditor's Report on those financial statements;
 - (d) include the number of Directors, without providing the Directors' names, but including a description of the capacity in which each such Director acted; and
 - (e) include the total number of employees and of contractors along with the total amount of remuneration paid to them.
- 81.0 The Members, at each AGM, will appoint a qualified professional accounting company to audit the Society's financial statements, and set the appointment to end at the close of the next Annual General Meeting or when a successor is appointed.

PART 10 – ADMINISTRATION

- 82.0 The Board may appoint one or more Senior Managers to exercise the Directors' authority to manage the activities or internal affairs of the Society as a whole, or in respect of a principal unit of the Society.
- 83.0 The Board must ensure that a Senior Manager:
- (a) meets the professional qualifications and business experience standards required to manage the Society's business affairs; and
 - (b) that the standards are commensurate with best practice and industry standards, both when the person is hired and during the entire time of employment; and
 - (c) that the Senior Manager adheres to the same provisions in these Bylaws that apply to the Directors.

PART 11 – DISSOLUTION

84.0 In the event that the Society should at any time be wound up or dissolved, the remaining assets, after payment of all debts and liabilities, shall be turned over to one or more recognized charitable organizations in Canada, or to Trustees in trust for a charitable purpose, as the Members may determine by ordinary resolution.

PART 12 – MISCELLANEOUS

85.0 These Bylaws may not be altered except by Special Resolution, placed before and passed by the Members attending a duly constituted meeting of the Society.

END OF HCP BYLAWS

APPROVED BY THE SOCIETY AT THE AGM ON JUNE 24, 2022.
