Territory Acknowledgement

We acknowledge that the HCP stands on the traditional territories of the WSÁNEC and Songhees Peoples, who have stewarded this land since time immemorial, and whose relationship with this land is ongoing to this day. We acknowledge the trust and responsibility placed in HCP to steward these lands. HCP intends to foster relationships which respect the cultural and historical responsibility implicit in land stewardship. With gratitude, we recognize the privilege we have working and learning on this land.
